1889 Territorial Schoolhouse

124 E. 2nd Street, Edmond, OK 73034
405-340-0078

Dear Educator,

We are very fortunate to relive Oklahoma history inside the walls of the first one-room schoolhouse in Oklahoma Territory that sits in its' original location in Edmond! The schoolhouse experience we offer will take your students back in time, helping them to learn history in an interactive, hands-on and historically accurate setting.

Your students will become "scholars" for the day with the same instruction, activities, and play experienced by the first Edmond scholars including penmanship with an inkwell and pen, ciphering, recitation and games such as hoops and graces. Our schoolmarms are certified Oklahoma teachers. With a day at the schoolhouse, your students experience the difference between school in 1889 and today.

This packet includes specific information about the schoolhouse day as well as other information that will help you prepare your students for this memorable experience. It is our goal that this "day in 1889" will be a highlight in your students' year!

Please contact Lorie Prater at lprater@edmondhistory.org or (405) 340-0078 with any questions you may have.

We look forward to welcoming your students to a "day in the 1889 Schoolhouse"!

Sincerely,

Carol Anderson

Resident Teacher & Schoolmarm

Sample letter for sending home to parents

Dear Parents,

Your student has the opportunity to spend the day at the First Territorial Schoolhouse in the state, located on Second Street in Edmond. Your child will assume the role of "scholar" for the day, "1889 style". They will relive Oklahoma history through lessons, activities, and even lunch in a historically accurate and realistic way under the direction of the "schoolmarm".

We need your help to make this experience as meaningful as possible! We are asking the students to dress in character for the day, resembling the dress of 1889. Girls would have worn longer skirts or dresses (mid-calf would be fine) boots, and possibly an apron and bonnet. Hair would have probably been braided or tied back with a ribbon. Boys would have most likely worn overalls or blue jeans with a plaid or cotton shirt. They might have worn suspenders (this could be a rope, twine, or black elastic), vests, and boots. Boys may have worn hats to school, but they would have removed them before coming into the schoolhouse. Be creative, but please do not stress about this! Grandparents, older students, garage sales, and thrift stores (i.e., Goodwill) may have some dress items that you can use or adapt. *More simple, easy-to-put-together dress ideas are available at www.ehow.com/list\_pioneer-costumes-kids.html and other internet search sites.

Lunch is part of this learning experience. Your child will need to bring lunch from home on the day of the field trip. Scholars would have brought their lunch in a pail, probably made from a coffee can or lard can. We can also use large vegetable or fruit cans, or a clean unused paint can (available at hardware stores). Cans with writing on them can be painted or covered with brown paper. To make the handle, simply punch holes in the top sides of the can using a nail and hammer. A piece of wire or heavy twine fastened through the top two holes will serve as a handle. A scrap of cloth makes a cover. Baskets or even a cloth sack could also be used to hold your student's lunch. The only beverage would have been water from a tin cup. You might want to use an empty, clean soup can for this. Water will be available at the schoolhouse. Lunch items would have been simple. There were no baggies or paper towels in 1889! Lunch would have been wrapped in a cloth. Listed below are a few examples of what might have been in a typical lunch pail.

- Simple sandwich of bread & cheese or meat
- Biscuit with jam or butter or cornbread
- Boiled eggs
- Fresh fruit; apple, pear, peach, or plum
- Fresh vegetables; carrot, cabbage wedge, or tomato
- A "homemade" cookie (probably sugar or molasses)

We are looking forward to a wonderful and memorable day!

Things You Need to Know. . .

FOUR WEEKS OUT:

Times: The field trip time is from 9:00am-2:00pm. Please do not arrive early. If you need to arrive late or leave early please inform your schoolmarm so she can adapt the curriculum and schedule accordingly.

Submit: Send a class list of students' first and last names, designating boys and girls, to Lorie Prater at lprater@edmondhistory.org two weeks in advance. This will be used to create name tags and guide the lesson/activities.

Lunch Pail with Cloth Cover: For generations, children have taken their lunches to school. In the 1890's children usually carried their noon meal in a tin syrup pail or lard can. A wire handle would be attached for ease in carrying the lunch pail. A replica of these lunch pails can be made from a 3 lb. shortening can, a large coffee can, a large vegetable/fruit can or a clean, unused paint can (available at hardware stores). Cans with writing on them can be painted or covered with paper. To make the handle, simply punch holes in the top sides of the can using a nail and hammer. A piece of wire or heavy twine fastened through the top two holes will serve as a handle. A scrap of cloth makes a cover. In a pinch, baskets or even a cloth sack can be used to hold a student's lunch.

Release Forms: We recommend sending the release form to parents 4 weeks out. Students must have the release form signed and turned to the Edmond Historical Society & Museum two weeks prior to the field trip- along with payment.

For Discussion with Students:

The lunch that the children bring to the schoolhouse should be authentic.

Ideas for discussion:

1. Brainstorm a list of possible foods in their lunch pail in 1889.
2. What fruit would they have? What food would they not have?
3. What did they wrap the food in?
4. What did they drink?

Children's lunches contained whatever was in their house. There were no neighborhood grocery stores or school cafeterias. Some children took molasses or lard and sugar sandwiches or cold pancakes leftover from breakfast. You may want to write down a "lunch" menu to take home to discuss with their parents to give them plenty of time to prepare.

Some Food Suggestions:

Sandwich (cheese, jelly, egg or meat)
Bread would have been a biscuit or homemade bread
Mayonnaise was homemade, mustard was not available
Hard-boiled eggs
Fresh Fruit and Vegetables (apples, pears, peaches, grapes, plums, carrots, cabbage wedges, tomatoes)
Home-made cookies
Left-over fried chicken, bacon, ham

There were no baggies in 1889. Sandwiches were wrapped in butcher paper or in cloth. Food usually dried out. Aluminum foil was not available.

We will be drinking water only, brought in from the "well" so have each student bring a tin cup for water. You can use a washed-out soup can or tin cups can be purchased from a camping supply store (Academy, Bass Pro, etc.)

Schoolhouse Rules:

1. Students will not speak unless spoken too. There will be no giggling, whispering or squirming in the desks.
2. When speaking, complete sentences and proper language will be used at all times.
3. When you wish to speak, you must raise your hand, wait to be recognized and then stand beside your desk before speaking.
4. Male students will remove hats before entering the schoolhouse.
5. All students will use poise and good posture. Feet are to be on the floor and hands are to be folded on the top of desks at all times unless doing seatwork.
6. All students will behave as young ladies and gentlemen at all times.

The most important rule in our schoolhouse is the golden rule:

“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”

The First Territorial Schoolhouse History Facts

The citizens of Edmond won the distinction of having the very first public schoolhouse in Oklahoma Territory. The first church was also housed there. It was completed in August 1889 and was located at the southwest corner of Second and Boulevard. They raised money to pay the first teacher, Miss Ollie McCormick, $75.00 a month for the winter term. The settlers wanted a place for their children to receive an education. The Ladies Aid Society raised money so that the children could attend school free.

The Edmond Sun reported that the “tinkling of its little bell tolled the knell of barbarism on the prairies of Indian Territory.” The first classes were held on September 16, 1889, with nineteen scholars. Thirty-seven scholars finished that first school year. At the end of that year, Edmond celebrated with a picnic. Later that same year in July, a bell was purchased, another first for Edmond.

In the second year, enrollment at the schoolhouse increased to seventy students. Colonel Moose was the teacher that term. By January, the enrollment had increased to 100, requiring a division of the scholars. Miss Bowen took charge of the smaller children in the original building of the SUN, while Colonel Moose taught in the one-room schoolhouse.

In February Colonel Moose resigned. His successor was Mrs. Twyford. In June of 1891, the first class graduated with nine girl scholars and nine boy scholars!
